AMIS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTION:

Funds for AMIS Festival Scholarships are provided by contributions and gifts.

A limited number of scholarships to AMIS festivals are available during each academic year.

Participants in any AMIS festival (both high school and middle school levels) are eligible to apply.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES:

1. It is the responsibility of the music teacher to preselect a candidate.
2. Only one applicant per school per festival may apply each year.
3. Successful applicants cannot apply a second time.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Alternates are not eligible to apply.
2. Only those students who attend an AMIS member school are eligible for scholarship assistance.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

1. A scholarship application form is available on the AMIS web site.
2. The Scholarship Committee must receive all applications. Decisions will be communicated to the applying music teachers. The decisions of the committee will be sent by e-mail to teachers making scholarship applications.
3. The parent of each student applicant is required to complete the parent scholarship request form and to return it to the music teacher, who will forward it to the committee.
4. Teacher and Parent Scholarship Application Forms must be sent together to Hal Halvorsen, chair of the Scholarship Committee.
5. Deadlines Applicants for the Honor Jazz Band Festival must apply prior to May 25th. They will be notified of the results by June 1. Applicants for the Middle School Boys Honor Choir must apply no later than August 20th and will be notified of results no later than August 28th. The deadline for International Senior Honor Orchestra, International Junior Honor Orchestra, International Honor Band and Choir, and Middle School Honor Band is November 30th. Applicants will be notified of results by December 10th. Deadline for Middle School Girls Honor Choir and Middle School Mixed Honor Choir is February 15, with applicants being notified of results no later than March 1. When faxing materials please confirm by email that materials have been sent.
